

Privacy Policy

The Yorkville Sports Association (YSA) use of personal information that you may provide through this website is governed by our Privacy Policy.

We want to make your experience with us secure, private, and simple to understand. Here is what you can expect from us.

Information You Provide

In the Members area of our website, we ask you to provide information by filling out and submitting online forms. We ask for your name, address and contact information to process your membership and (if appropriate) ship your order, and so we can contact you if we have a question about your order. When you request a transaction for which payment is required, we offer the option of payment by credit card, and ask for credit card information to fulfill your order and to provide this information to the company or companies who process your credit card payment. We do not store credit card data after the transaction has been finalized. We do not share any information with third parties, except in the case of contact or order information needed to fulfill your order. We do not share or sell email addresses.

Cookies – what they are and how we use them

Cookies are small text files that your web browser software stores on your computer when you visit some websites. The site uses cookies to help make it easier for you to use our site and to help us customize your experience so that we can provide you with the information you need – when and where you need it. Name, address and other personal details are not stored within these cookies. The cookies simply hold the “key” that, once interpreted by our site, is associated with this information.

YSA also uses analytical marketing software to understand how and when users interact with our site. No personal information is tracked or stored.

How we use email

After you place an order on our site, you will receive an email confirmation.

You are required to provide your email address on our website to receive scheduling and important system notices. We add your address to our mailing list, and may send you email to follow up on your inquiry and for YSA marketing purposes. You will have the option to opt-out of some, but not all, email communications.

We do not sell or share email addresses with other companies.

We do use email as a means of receiving feedback from our members, and we encourage you to contact us with your questions or comments. We read every email we receive.

Links to other sites

Occasionally we may provide links to other sites we think you will enjoy. These sites operate independently of YSA and have established their own privacy and security policies. For the best online experience, we strongly encourage you to review these policies at any site you visit.

Information we do not share with others: YSA does not share, sell or trade email addresses, information collected as part of a survey, or specific details about you or your household. We do not contribute to or participate in shared or cooperative databases, which give other companies access to your personal information. We do not release credit card or financial information for use by other companies. For both privacy and security purposes, all transactional information communicated between members and our website is transmitted in an encrypted format.

Requirements of State and Federal Law:

YSA operates under the laws of the State of New York and the United States of America. YSA may be required to respond to inquiries from government representatives legally pursuant to state and federal law.

Updates to our information practices:

We're always looking for ways to improve our site's features and services – and to improve the way we communicate our information practices. As a result, this statement is updated from time to time. We encourage you to periodically review this page for the latest information on our privacy practices.

Questions or comments?

Please contact us. For questions, comments or assistance with any privacy-related issues, we invite you to contact us. We're always happy to help.
